

17 JUL 1967

MEMORANDUM FOR:

The Honorable Paul C. Sarbanes
Assistant Secretary
International Security Affairs
Department of Defense

SUBJECT:

Economic Intelligence Statistical
Handbook, 1967

1. The attached is the latest issuance of our Economic Intelligence Statistical Handbook. I believe you will find it a useful source of facts and figures, and a valuable aid in interpreting published economic intelligence. Unclassified sources have been used wherever possible to maximize its usefulness.

2. The principal purpose of the Handbook is to provide essential economic statistics on the Communist countries, but it also contains a great deal of data on certain countries of the Free World, including comparative data.

3. Additional copies of the Handbook are available should you require them.
